

Recent Developments in Cyber Law

Gary Rogers
Associate Professor
Macon State College
100 College Station Drive
Macon, GA 31206
478-471-2809
grogers@mail.maconstate.edu
Jason Ashford
Assistant District Attorney
Houston County, GA

Abstract

Due to recent national and international legal decisions and executive directives, the impact the Law has on cyberspace has broadened. Provisions of the Patriot Act as well as recent decisions by the European Union have focused attention on enforcement actions on the IT front. Broadened law enforcement powers throughout the legal spectrum have dramatically impacted this arena. Specific recent developments will be presented along with those being considered.

Note: This paper was not received by the time the proceedings went to print. The authors will provide written materials at the session or on the web.